Speed Decorating

By Jill Vegas. Publisher: The Taunton Press, $21.95

Jill defines signature speed decorating as using art, arrangements and accessories to give your home instant personality. The fast food of interior designing, the easy, practical, helpful tips means that you don't need to gut the innards of your home and wait for months for results or dig deep into your pockets.

All you need is a magic wand – no, we're kidding. But the helpful basic advice that this interior decorator and apartment stager provides from step one like spring cleaning to table decoration, lighting, and storage to bathroom shine will make the daunting task a whole lot simpler. The best part: The lovely photographs with captions telling you what the fresh ideas in those rooms are.
